OLDFIELD TODAY DROVE THE FASTEST MILES OF HIS CAREER.

The Mighty Benz Racer Sent Snorting and Roaring Down the Beach.

Barney Oldfield, darp devil automobilist and veteran of the speed trials, drove the fastest miles of his career over the Daytona Beach this morning. Oldfield had his monster Benz racer out for its first workout in America and when he pulled out in front of the Automobile club house he removed his goggles and wiping the sand and oil from his face, said "Believe me, I get more speed out of this car than I ever believed was in the whole world. I have traveled some in my time and have been on every course in the universe that was considered real fast, and have driven some of the greatest and fastest cars ever constructed. But I never knew what real speed was until I tackled this combination of power and speed this morning."

"How fast did you go," asked Secretary Fitzgerald to whom the champion was addressing his remarks. "How fast," was Barney's reply, "why say, I don't believe there was ever a watch that could clock the speed I was making. I'm not kidding a bit when I tell you that I will cover miles at speed no one ever thought possible with a practical automobile that can run 300 miles as fast as it can run one mile."

Oldfield covered about fifty to seventy-five miles during his morning practice and pronounced the beach in fine shape. The 200-horse power Benz looks more like a real racing automobile than any car ever on the course here. Both Oldfield and the big Benz sprung into immediate favor among the local population and visitors and the victory Oldfield will land over the Fiat combination should prove very popular.

After the races they will again cruise southward with Key West as their objective point.

C. S. Branch, who has been visiting with his son, W. C. Branch and wife, at The Willmer, since last fall, left today for Minneapolis, Minn., stopping enroute at St. Augustine, Jacksonville and Chattanooga. Mr. Branch came before the cold snap of December had destroyed the brilliant flower coloring of the city, yet he says of its natural beauty that God certainly was in good humor when he made Daytona.

Want hold water! The statements advanced by some houses are made without foundation. However, when I say that nowhere can you get better value in Rubber Goods than I offer you, you can depend upon it being a fact. An examination of the goods will thoroughly convince you.

THE TRAVELOQUE

A GREAT SUCCESS.

Last night when Surrick Lincoln, the famous Raconteur and Traveller, stepped upon the stage of the Daytona Opera House, he faced a house crowded to the doors with an audience drawn by his splendid reputation, and who at once by their enthusiasm showed their appreciation of an opportunity to hear his Travelogue, "Alaska, Land of the Midnight Sun."

From the first moment he commanded his audience, and in terse well chosen words he described the wonders of his trip, which were illustrated on the huge sheet by the most beautiful colored views which have ever been shown here, in fact, they are the most beautiful pictures in existence. This may be difficult to believe until one has seen them, but last night the audience was so delighted that they broke into salvos of applause at the appearance of nearly every picture. The Travelogue was supplemented with magnificent motion pictures, declared by all to be in quality far above any ever presented here.

On Wednesday night, Mr. Lincoln will present his Travelogue, universally hailed as his greatest production, "The Canadian Rockies and Selkirk Ranges," together with unique motion pictures, including the flights of the Wright Bros.' aeroplanes, for the privilege of taking which $10,000 was paid.

The prices are fifty cents for adults and thirty-five cents for children.

A MOST ENJOYABLE

BOATING PARTY.

One of the most enjoyable boating parties of the season left Daytona Beach yesterday morning in the Pierce and Gardner launches, running to the head of the Tomoka and return. The party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Adams and daughters, Miss Marie Adams and Mrs. Kinney, Mr. Rourke, Mrs. Hollister, Miss Taft, and Oscar Johnson. The day was perfect and the alligators seemed to know what was expected of them and were out with their families, for the entertainment of the visitors.

One enormous brute refused to have his nap disturbed, and allowed the boats to run past him, and ran into the bank within six feet of him before taking to the water. The ladies served a picnic dinner at the Tomoka cabin at noon, and the party docked on their return just at sunset.

TO DISCUSS RE-

LIGIOUS EDUCATION

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 8.—With an attendance of college presidents, theologians and religious workers from all sections of the country the seventh general convention of the Religious Education Association assembled in this city today for a three days' session. The project of the association in brief is to promote the interests indicated by its name by giving attention to the religious aspects of education and to the educational side of religion.

Among the one hundred or more scheduled speakers at the present convention are included many men of national reputation in religious and educational work. Among the number are President Faunce, of Brown University; President Thompson, of Ohio State University; Chancellor Kirkland of Vanderbilt University; President Moffatt, of Washington and Jefferson College; President Snyder of Wofford College; Bishop Hendrix of Chicago; Bishop Atkins, of North Carolina, and Prof. George A. Coe of Union Theological Seminary.

AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION

HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION.

R. M. BOND, OF DELAND, THE NEW PRESIDENT — MOST OF OTHERS RE-ELECTED.

The annual meeting of the East Coast Automobile Association was held at the clubhouse Monday evening. Officers were elected for the ensuing year, as follows:

President—R. M. Bond.
First Vice-President—J. H. Allen.
Second Vice-President—E. F. Oates.
Secretary—T. E. Fitzgerald.
Treasurer—F. N. Conrad.
Directors—H. Y. Stillman, S. H. Gove, Geo. F. Smith, Henry T. Titus, J. D. Maley and W. M. Hankins.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were very flattering to the association from a financial standpoint, showing it to be in a more prosperous condition than ever.

The officers elected will assume office April 1.

FIGHT TO CONTROL

COAL COMPANY

NEW YORK, March 8.—Financial circles are awaiting with considerable interest the result of the meeting of the Pittsburg Coal Company in session in Jersey City today. For nearly a year a fierce fight has waged for the control of the great corporation. A strong syndicate was organized by Pittsburg and New York financiers with the object of buying control of the company. Within a few months the syndicate threw no less than $10,000,000 into the enterprise. When the officers of the company became aware of the plans of the syndicate they entered into the battle with all the business ability they could command. The officers of the company promptly declared a dividend of 1 1/4 per cent, which has since been paid. This effectively stopped the buying of stock for control and it is believed that the annual meeting will result in a vindication for the officers of the company and the final route of the syndicate.

SHIPPERS COMPLAIN OF

FREIGHT OVERCHARGES

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 8.—A great array of railroad legal talent assembled in Minneapolis today to defend their roads in a series of important cases up before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Alleged freight overcharges are the issues involved in the cases, in which complainants are leading merchants, manufacturers, lumbermen and others in Minnesota and neighboring states. The Burlington, Minneapolis & St. Louis, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and other leading roads are among the defendants.

PROPOSE TO REDUCE

EXPRESS RATES

AUSTIN, Texas, Mar. 8.—The State Railroad Commission today began a hearing on the proposal to reduce the joint rates charged by express companies in Texas. It is proposed to make the joint rates the local rates for the same or equal distance plus 20 per cent. The adoption of the new plan would mean a material reduction in the revenues of the express companies, as at present they charge the sum of the locals to point of interchange and from there to destination, less 10 per cent.

AEROPLANE IS BEING

ASSEMBLED ON THE BEACH.

MONSTER FLYING MACHINE WILL SOON BE READY TO SPREAD ITS WINGS FOR FLIGHT.

The work of assembling the big flying machine has been rapidly progressing in the big shed erected for its shelter on the ocean beach, just north of the automobile club house, and within a few days it will be ready to spread its great wings for a trial flight from the magnificent beach made famous by the speed records established upon it in the various past seasons.

This big aeroplane will prove an added attraction to what promises to be the greatest automobile speed carnival ever held upon the beach, and should it come up to its owners' expectations, the crowds of people will have the double joy of watching from the same point of vantage the space aviators of both earth and air.

DISMISSED BECAUSE OF

LACK OF EVIDENCE.

Annie Tutson, a colored chamber maid at The Willmer, who was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Myers, on a charge of grand larceny, preferred by guests of The Willmer, was brought before Justice Titus Monday, but was discharged because of insufficient evidence.

A watch-belonging to a young lady guest of the house had disappeared from a dresser of her room at a time when the room door had been unlocked and suspicion pointed to the Tutson girl as the guilty party.

HARRY THAW'S CREDITORS

TO GET $30,000

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 8.—A meeting of the creditors of Harry K. Thaw, now confined in the asylum for the criminal insane at Mattewan, N. Y., was held here today to discuss plans for a settlement of their claims. The report of Roger O'Mara, trustee in Bankruptcy for Thaw, indicates that about $30,000 will be left to distribute among the numerous creditors after all items of expenses are deducted.

LOCAL MILITARY

TO BE INSPECTED.

First Lieutenant Chas. H. Danfort, 17th U. S. Infantry, will arrive from St. Augustine tonight on an annual inspection tour. He will inspect Company K, Second Infantry, National Guard of Florida, at the Armory on Wednesday evening. He will also inspect the records and accounts of Captain A. H. Schmidt, quartermaster 2nd Infantry, Lieut. B. B. Baggett, quartermaster and commissary, 2nd Battalion and 2nd Infantry, and Capt. L. A. Spencer, captain of Infantry, who will arrive this afternoon from Miami to attend the inspection. The visiting officers will be guests at Schmidt's Hotel during their stay in the city.

VISITORS PATRONIZING

EXCURSION BOATS.

The excursion steamers Uncle Sam and Cherokee were loaded this morning with people bent on enjoying the fine weather now prevailing. The Cherokee was bound for the Tomoka river and the Uncle Sam to the inlet, and an oyster roast. So many passengers there were, that the ferry boat Dixie was robbed of nearly all her chairs to accommodate them.

TO REVEAL SECRETS OF MAYBRAY GANG.

ALLEGED TO HAVE SWINDLED HUNDREDS OF VICTIMS BY FAKE RACING SCHEMES—TRIAL OF MAYBRAY TO BEGIN TOMORROW.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., March 8.—According to reports now in circulation the trial of John C. Maybray in the United States district court here will bring to light the whole inside story of the alleged "swindle syndicate," and lay bare to the world the inner workings of a conspiracy by which more than a hundred victims were fleeced out of a total sum of money estimated at nearly $1,000,000. The jury for the case has already been drawn and the trial is set to begin day after tomorrow.

It is said that several men who acted as "steerers" for the alleged swindle syndicate and who were among the eighty-four indicted with Maybray by the Federal grand jury here last fall will turn State's evidence at the trial and reveal the methods of the gang.

Maybray and his alleged associates were indicted on charge of conspiring to defraud through the use of the United States mails in the promotion of fake horse races and wrestling matches. Victims in eighteen states, the territory of Alaska and the Dominion of Canada were named in the indictment, indicating the wide range of territory over which the members of the gang are alleged to have plied their vocation. The sum lost by the victims varied from $1500 to $30,000, the latter sum having been placed on a fake horse race. It is said by a Missouri banker.

As a basis of operation, the gang used, according to the indictment, the cities of Burlington, Davenport, Council Bluffs, Iowa; St. Louis, Seattle, Denver, Little Rock and New Orleans, to which places it is alleged victims were taken by the numerous "steerers." The indictment named eighty-five persons who are alleged to have been victims of the gang, most of them live in the Western States.

It is said the system by which the gang worked will be brought out in all its details at the trial. The evidence, it is stated, will show how the gang first got its eye on the prospective victim, how the steerer succeeded in drawing him on, how the gang finally got hold of him and how he was fleeced. Furthermore, it is stated the evidence will show how the gang operated for its own protection, how the athletic contests were arranged, and in fact, how the heads of the alleged conspiracy were able to secure as aids and allies a large number of athletes, horsemen, wrestlers and other sporting men of more or less reputation together with numerous other men said to have long criminal records. Every move of the gang from its first inception until its dissolution will be brought out and testimony of a highly sensational nature will mark the case as one of the most important and far-reaching criminal operations the country has ever known.

VIRGINIA SENATOR STRICKEN.

HON. JOHN W. DANIELS, U. S. SENATOR FROM VIRGINIA SUFFERED ATTACK OF PARALYSIS YESTERDAY.

Hon. John W. Daniels, United States Senator from Virginia, who is a guest of the Palmetto, accompanied by his private secretary, was stricken with paralysis yesterday at about noon, just as he was going to dinner, his left side being affected.

Mr. Daniels was planning to go to Palm Beach in the afternoon and was feeling as well as usual previous to the attack.

During the forenoon Mr. Daniels enjoyed an automobile ride with Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Chowning and Mrs. Chowning's sister, who are warm personal friends of his, and returned feeling as well as usual. He had planned to go to Palm Beach in the afternoon and had made all the necessary arrangements.

Dr. Chowning was at once summoned and did everything possible for Mr. Daniels, who was removed to Dr. Bohannon's Hospital, where Dr. Chowning remained with him throughout the night. This morning he was doing as well as could be expected.

Senator Daniels had had a previous attack of paralysis last fall and came to Florida recently to recuperate from an attack of bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. Daniels is a prominent and popular citizen of Virginia, having represented that State in the United States Senate since 1885. He was re-elected, without opposition, a week ago. He served with distinction in the Civil War and bears the title of Major, won in that service.

A son-in-law of the Senator is expected to arrive this evening.

CONSTITUTION AND REPUBLIC CARRYING MANY PASSENGERS.

The Indian River Line boats, Constitution and Republic arrived as scheduled Monday evening, the Republic with sixty or sixty-five passengers from St. Augustine and the Constitution with 110 from down river points.

Both carried out many passengers this morning and the fore deck of the Republic was piled high with baggage.

The Republic was delayed for several minutes in taking aboard a lady who arrived after the boat had started, necessitating the return to the dock. The dock and street in front of the Prince George Hotel presented a lively scene during the embarking of passengers upon the boats.

Commissioner W. D. Bradshaw attended the regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners yesterday and today.

By L. C. DENARRE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fill by its joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicled Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey foot fishes in countless numbers basking, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his bounding load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond's bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryp-togamone forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering.
"What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most
and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such large wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, —where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruit" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pecked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, sassy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia, and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, productivity and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuktoo, and you will be "shoo-in." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 3-horse power, up to a 20-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEA BREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH two charming progressive towns on the first Peninsula are progressing although incorporated as municipalities. The towns are the peninsula north and south of distance of from three and a half to four miles, and extend east west from the surging sea of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River.
The beautiful tide-water stream sets them apart from Daytona Beach which they have close connection by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making immediate new friends every year among those who desire to escape the disagreeing extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature 65 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin.
For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, safe for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tides.
The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E.
Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated.
The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.
The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Izaak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach. Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with sub-tropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.
 The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.
 Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilism, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.
 At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.
 The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.
 Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.
 One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.
 Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road [passing Number Nine] and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.
 At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."
 Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.
 The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.
 The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty. In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.
 Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.
 The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.
 The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.
 From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY
 The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, over which spans a bridge from the town to the peninsula opposite.
 The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes owned and occupied by residents and winter tourists. It has several churches, one of the best graded schools in Volusia county, two general stores, a real estate agency and two or three hotels.
 A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing. Port Orange is in the orange belt and a number of very fine citrus groves are nearby, where oranges, tangerines and grape-fruit hang in profusion. Some of the best trucking land in the State is to be found thereabout and excellent crops are raised.
 West of Port Orange a short distance are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a spot that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. At one time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast sugar-cane and indigo plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those days but has been in disuse for thirty or forty years.
 A pretty automobile or carriage drive from Daytona is via the ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland. This drive affords a very pleasing variety of scenery.

No city in the world has greater attractions for drivers of motor cars than Daytona. When automobilists would lower speed records, they come to Daytona Beach, to the mid-winter meets of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association. The wonderful speedway is a stretch of beach 300 feet wide at low water, level, smooth, almost as hard as asphalt, and extending twenty miles, without turn, break or obstruction. Here the driver has before him an open course which is absolutely safe, and is unmatched for straightaway driving. It is this quality which gives the course international fame, and makes it the mecca for automobile speed enthusiasts the world over. The Florida mid-winter meeting is the most important event in the automobile year. Marvelous records have been made on this course, and today it is without a parallel for straightaway racing. Every record in existence is now held by the Daytona Beach course.

The Association was organized and is conducted solely for the promotion of the sport, and is maintained by the dues of the members and entry fees paid by competing sportsmen. The record trials are open to the world, and thus the meet has an international character. Foreign countries are represented, both among the patrons and the contestants. The Association has a most attractive and commodious club house on the beach, directly opposite the half-way post of the twenty-mile course. The club has a membership of two hundred, and among them many prominent and well known people.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, or Donax, peculiar to this part of Florida. The shells are about one-half inch long and very thin. For ages nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, the builders say, because its smoothness prevents it from holding together; yet, strange to contemplate, the moment a wave leaves these sand particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Surely it must have been made for the automobile, for, regardless of weather conditions, there is no mud, no dust, tires are never heated owing to the moisture, and exploded tires are unknown. Here too, the great dangers of road and track racing are entirely eliminated, and man can never build a road as hard and smooth. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each twenty-four hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tides. Immense holes may be dug, but the next tide hides every trace. Being almost level with an average rise and fall of only two feet and nine inches at extremely low tide, this beach is from 300 to 500 feet wide, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven to eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

The automobilizing opportunities are by no means confined to the beach. Driving has always been in favor in Daytona, and much attention has been given to the making of good roads. The hard roads in and around Daytona are famous for their excellence and attractiveness. They lead in many directions, passing through charming scenery and reaching many interesting points. One penetrates dense tropical forests, leading to ancient stone ruins; another follows the river to a modern plantation, hospitably thrown open to inspection. A favorite route is north on the Ocean beach to Ormond and return by the Halifax river road; or from Daytona one may go to New Smyrna by the new hard shell road, which, for fifteen miles, closely follows the west bank of the river. All these roads are adapted to the automobile, and every season finds upon them an increased number of machines.

SUFFRAGISTS ASSEMBLING IN FORCE AT ALBANY
 ALBANY, N. Y., March 8—Advocates of women suffrage are gathering here in force in anticipation of the joint hearing by the judiciary committees of the State senate and assembly tomorrow on the Hill-Toombs proposed constitutional amendment by which the suffragists hope to gain access to the polling booths. Both the State Woman Suffrage Association, in which Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont is actively interested, and the Equal Franchise Society, of which Mrs. Clarence Mackay is president will be represented at the hearing by large delegations.

Women's Curiosity in a Shoeshop.
 "Women are proverbially curious," said the shoe salesman, "but I think they show it more in a shop of this sort than anywhere else. At times it's hard to get a customer's attention, she's so busy watching what the women on either side are buying. And when a sale is completed and a woman walks out with her new boots on, watch the others. Every eye is fixed on the newly clad feet, and if the wearer happens to be smartly dressed there'll be a sudden demand from the others to be shown shoes of the same type. I think it's for that reason that women are so particular about not having holes in their stockings when they buy shoes. Men don't seem to care."—New York Sun

THE DELUGE.

Queer Old Australian Tradition About the Flood.

The aboriginal blacks of Australia have a queer tradition about the flood. They say that at one time there was no water on the earth at all except in the body of an immense frog, where men and women could not get at it. There was a great council on the subject, and it was found out that if the frog could be made to laugh the waters would run out of his mouth and the drought be ended.

So several animals were made to dance and caper before the frog to induce him to laugh, but he did not even smile, and so the waters remained in his body. Then some one happened to think of the queer contortions into which the eel could twist itself, and it was straightway brought before the frog, and when the frog saw the wriggling he laughed so loud that the whole earth trembled, and the waters poured out of his mouth in a great flood, in which many people were drowned.

The black people were saved from drowning by the pelican. This thoughtful bird made a big canoe and went with it among all the islands that appeared here and there above the surface of the water and gathered in the black people and saved them.

A Case of Overcrowding.

"I don't see why I keep on getting so much fatter. I only eat two meals a day."

"I know, my love, but you shouldn't insist upon crowding your breakfast and luncheon into one meal and your dinner and a late supper into the other."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An Angel.

"My wife always forgives my faults."

"I've got you skinned to death."

"How?"

"My wife forgets mine."

Heart to Heart Talks.

DREAMS.

All of us dream. But not all of us go out to make our dreams come true.

A king of Egypt dreamed, and the pyramids of Cheops were the realization of his vision.

Homer dreamed, and his "Iliad" abides with us and will abide.

Michelangelo dreamed dreams of beauty and then put them into marble.

Fulton first dreamed and then built his steamboat.

Lewis and Clark had a vision of the great northwest and could not rest until they made manifest their dreams.

Morse dreamed of carrying intelligence on a wire, and Marconi dreamed of the wireless message, and both materialized their dreams.

Professor Bell dreamed and the telephone spoke. Edison dreamed and the phonograph sang.

On the hills near Dayton, O., the Wright boys dreamed their dream of an airship, and now men sail the skies.

The poet said:
Alas, that dreams are only dreams.
That fancy cannot give a lasting beauty
To those forms that scarce a moment live.

Which would be true if men merely dreamed and dallied and dreamed. But some are not disobedient to the heavenly vision. They go out to fulfill their dreams, to give a lasting beauty to the momentary glimpse.

Every concrete thing of creation is a materialized dream; every outcome of beauty or utility was dreamed out.

Dreams are the shadows of things hoped for, the substance of things not seen.

First the seed of the dream, then the blade of purpose and then the full corn in the ear—fulfillment.

Surely we must "do noble things, not dream them all day long," but we must dream them before we can do them.

"Such stuff as dreams are made of" is soul stuff.

And soul stuff was made for service as well as for dreaming.

How He Got His Idea.

"So your father thinks I am a genius?"

"Yes."

"It is nice to know that he has such a high opinion of me. I wonder how he got it?"

"I don't know, except that he said you were such a funny looking person he supposed you must be a genius or I wouldn't have invited you to call."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Four and Its Multiple of Ten.
The number four was anciently esteemed the most perfect of all, being the arithmetical mean between one and seven. Omah, the second cubit, said, "Four things come not back-- the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life, the neglected opportunity." In nature there are four seasons and the four points of the compass.
Forty, a multiple of four by ten, is one of the sacred numbers. The probation of our first parents in the garden of Eden is supposed to have been forty years. The rain fell at the deluge forty days and nights, and the water remained on the earth forty days.
The days of embalming the dead were forty. Solomon's temple was forty cubits long. In it were ten layers, each four cubits long and containing forty baths.
Moses was forty years old when he led into the land of Midian, where he dwelt forty years. He was on Mount Sinai forty days and forty nights. The Israelites wandered in the wilderness forty years. The Saviour fasted forty days and nights before entering upon public life. The same time elapsed between the resurrection and the ascension.--Exchange.

How Roberts Won the Victoria Cross.
Roberts noted that a sower of the squadron with which he rode was in great danger from a sepooy with a fixed bayonet. The contest of sword against bayonet would have ended disastrously had not Roberts intervened and disposed of the bayonet. That was barely done when he noticed in the distance two sepoy fleeing with a standard.
He galloped after the rebels and overtook them, and then he had a close fight for the possession of the standard. He cut down its chief bearer.
While wrenching the staff from the man's grasp with both his hands the other sepooy turned his musket on him and fired. The muzzle was within a few inches of Roberts' person, and there would certainly have been an end of him had not the musket refused to go off. As it was, he rode away unhurt with the standard, and for those two courageous and gallant acts in close succession Roberts got the Victoria cross.--Cobban's "Life of Roberts."

The Cows of Muscat.
Muscat is famed as the hotbed of smugglers in the Persian gulf, the nearby desert tribes being regularly supplied with arms despite the efforts of the British patrol. But to the writer, reared on a Missouri farm, the odd antics of the cows of Muscat seemed nothing short of freakish. They actually eat fish. No grass grows, so the wily Arab teaches his family cow to subsist on dates and dried fish. The milk tastes queer to a foreigner, which is probably why the Arab likes it. He also claims it is richer and makes more butter, but most ridiculous of all is the deception practiced on cows when the calves are "weaned." A calfskin or sometimes a goatskin is stuffed with rags and tied not far from where the mother cow is anchored. This effigy of her late lamented offspring soothes her nerves and keeps her from "going dry," according to Arabic tradition.--San Francisco Chronicle.

A Surprised Lion.
The man eating lions did not always get their own way. Five Sikh carpenters made a staging eight feet high, and on this they fixed their sleeping tent. Each night they ascended by means of a ladder, which they drew up after them. They were warned that it was not high enough, but were content to believe that God was all-powerful. One night they left the edge of the ladder projecting beyond the end of the staging. A hungry man eater on the prowl observed this and, thinking he could not find a meal more conveniently elsewhere, determined to try how a carpenter tasted.
Calculating his spring, he leaped lightly on to the projecting ladder, which, unfortunately for him, instantly tipped up and toppled over, both falling heavily to the ground. The lion bolted; so did all the men, making for the nearest trees.--From "In the Grip of the Nyika," by Colonel J. H. P. Patterson.

A Test of Friendship.
A gentleman tried the following peculiar way of probing the ties of friendship. He sent letters to twenty-four intimate friends asking for a loan of a pound. Thirteen of the two dozen friends did not reply at all, five declined to lend the money, two promised to send it on the next day and did not do it, one sent his "last 10 shillings," and only three sent the full sum asked for. The supplicant and all the "friends" he had written to are well off.--London Mail.

A Pointer.
The Girl--You're not a bit like a lover. You never say pretty things. The Man--Didn't I say that you looked like a beautiful autumn leaf? The Girl-- Well, don't autumn leaves want pressing?--Illustrated Bits.

His Bad Break.
"How did you enjoy the musicale?"
"Oh, I applauded at the wrong time, as usual! Thought the orchestra tuning up was a classical number!"--Kansas City Journal.

Thoughts.
Thoughts are much greater than things. They are vital forces and have endless effects. What you think today determines what you will be in years to come.

Easily Granted.
Tommy--Ma, can I have two pieces of pie this noon? Ma--Certainly, Tommy. Cut the piece you have in two.-- Somerville Journal.

Tragic Joking.
Oswald's friends were always on the lookout for some ruse. He once notified them that on New Year's day he should get the best of them all in some joke, and New Year's morning each received this notice, "Remember." They were on their guard.
As they were leaving a house where they had breakfasted Oswald slipped on the steps and fell on his back on the sidewalk. His friends rushed to his assistance, but paused before they reached him.
"This is his ruse," some one said.
Clearly the man who was so proud of his talent for mimicry was bent on deceiving them all into thinking him a dying man, for he lay there moaning pitifully, his face drawn and twisted as if with terrible pain.
His friends stood around and made jokes and puns and hummed lines of comic songs, assuring him all the while that they were not deceived by his acting. At last he gave a hoarse, mournful cry, looked at them sadly and then ceased to moan or writhe.
In a never to be forgotten moment of horror and sorrow his friends realized that Oswald was dead.--"Souvenirs d'un Vieux Libraire."

Caught the Old Sailor.
It was a clever lawyer in a Boston court who took advantage of the natural knowledge he possessed to work upon the mind of a jurymen who did not seem to show much comprehension of a case of suing a street railway for damages.

The dull member was an old sailor, who, though doubtless very keen of perception along some lines, was nevertheless rather slow in his understanding of the points involved in the case being tried, says the New York Journal. The lawyer noticed this and made his strike with this particular man. Approaching the jury box, he addressed himself to this one jurymen and said:
"Mr. Jurymen, I will tell you how it happened. The plaintiff was in command of the outward bound open car and stood in her starboard channels.
Along came the inward bound closed car, and just as their bows met she jumped the track, sheered to port and knocked the plaintiff off and ran over him."

The sailor was all attention after this version of the affair and joined in a $5,000 verdict for the injured man.

The Clinching Argument.
A young man representing a well known make of motorcar had called, discussed intelligently the points of the automobile he was endeavoring to sell, had given a flawless demonstration-- But the prospective amateur motorist before mortgaging his house still wanted to be thoroughly convinced, and so he said: "What you say about your car may be all right. The engine runs very nicely, and it looks good to me, but tell me one thing-- have you ever sold any of these cars to your own personal friends?"

The salesman smiled. "Have I? Why, three months ago I was engaged to a girl, and I sold one of these identical cars to my prospective father-in-law!"
"Did you marry the girl?"
"Yes, indeed! I've now got the girl, a contented father-in-law and an enthusiastic customer as well."
He made the sale.--Life.

Mules and Kindness.
"In the fifteen years that I have been connected with societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals in this and other cities I never have received a complaint alleging cruelty to a mule," said the humane looking man. "That immunity of mules from harsh treatment is an interesting question. Why are they immune? There are plenty of mules, even in New York. Does nobody beat them? Does nobody underfeed them? If not, why not? Does a mule show such a decided ability for taking care of himself that his owner is afraid to abuse him, or do men beat mules and escape punishment because the persons who witness the beating think it is only a mule and not worth bothering about?
What is the explanation of that phase of the mule question anyhow?"--New York Press.

To Rest His Eyes.
The people who quit reading "just to rest their eyes" might take a hint by inference from the reply made by an old illiterate. A passing man found him apparently deeply interested in a paper.

On looking close it became apparent that his paper was upside down, and he was asked forthwith why he held it thus.
His reply almost knocked the questioner out. It was:
"Just to rest my eyes!"

A Reversal.
"I suppose you talked a lot of nonsense to your wife before you were married."
"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton. "Before we were married she thought my nonsense sensible. Now when I try to talk sense she thinks it's nonsense."-- Exchange.

Inspiring Air.
He--So you think married life ought to be one grand, sweet song? She-- Yes. He--And what air would you prefer for this matrimonial song? She
--A millionaire!

Reciprocal Help.
Doctor--Well, my good woman, what do you want? Beggar--A quarter, doctor. Give me a quarter and I'll tell everybody that you helped me.

Death is the golden key that opens the palace of eternity.--Milton.
